

The European Thyroid Association Postgraduate Training Course
within the XV. Romanian Congress of Endocrinology Poiana Brasov, Romania Afternoon session October 27, Morning session October 28.

Highlights of thyroid research

- Proteomics, genomics and thyroid cancer (Paschke R. Germany)
- Thyroid and micronutrients: in need of iodine, selenium and iron: (Köhrle J. Germany)
- Gene therapy of thyroid cancer (Barzon L. Italy)
- Novel pharmacological approaches to metastatic thyroid cancer (Mogos V. Romania))
- Update in thyroid immunology (Lazarus J. UK)

Thyroid guidelines session: I have a problematic case, let us consult the guideline!

- Guidelines on nodular goitre: a case-based approach (Paschke R. Germany)
- Comparative evaluation of existing guidelines on differentiated non-medullary thyroid cancer (case discussions) (Jarzab B. Poland)
- Management of medullary thyroid cancer and related neuroendocrine tumors (case discussions) (Coculescu M. Romania)
- Thyroid and pregnancy: the usability of the international guideline evaluated through case discussions (Lazarus J. UK)
- Thyroid Eye disease. Are we on the way to have a guideline? (Wiersinga W. The Netherland)

Other Case Based Learning

- Interpretation and misinterpretation of thyroid parameters (Brabant G. UK)
- The thyroid in other endocrine diseases (Szabolcs I Hungary)
- Screening for thyroid diseases, whom, when, cost-benefit? (Zosin J. Romania)
- What are the expected and the real competencies and incompetencies of the general practitioner in the management and follow up of thyroid patients (fictive cases presented by Szabolcs and discussed by the panel of all-nations speakers)

The meeting is sponsored by Merck, Darmstadt, Germany