ETA Business Guidelines for Cases of Scientific Misconduct
Mainz, 6th Feb 2015

1. In any allegations of scientific misconduct, ETA Procedures will be consistent with guidance of the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity issued by the European Science Foundation – <http://www.esf.org/coordinating-research/mo-fora/research-integrity.html>
2. Individuals will be presumed innocent unless evidence is confirmed by their employing/host institution.
3. ETA reserves the right to withdraw/refuse membership and withdraw any prizes or awards previously given to subjects in whom there is confirmed evidence of scientific misconduct.
